

INTRO

Erik is the founder of Think GREAT, a business consulting firm, and the Think GREAT Foundation, which awards scholarships to military spouses. As the author of eight books, Erik shares his experiences as a U.S. Marine, caregiver, business coach, and entrepreneur to help organizations achieve new levels of success.

His unique combination of leadership development, strategic planning, and sales performance, empowers people to exceed expectations, personally and professionally. Erik has inspired audiences in nearly every industry and Think GREAT is a Certified Veteran-Owned Business.